OCTOBER 30, 2023

ROB GREGOR, YUBA COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

Julie Coulson, ParaEducator at Yuba Co. Career Preparatory Charter School

CONGRATULATIONS!

Julie Coulson a paraeducator at the Yuba County Career Preparatory Charter School was recently inducted into the Marysville Hall of Fame. Julie, graduated from Marysville High School in 1984 before attending Yuba College and meeting her husband, Chris Coulson.

A large portion of Julie's life has been spent helping her community, volunteering with at least 21 different local organizations including the Coalition of Women Committee, Yuba County Community Services Commission, Soroptomist of Yuba Sutter, Read Across America, and Yuba Sutter Stand Down.

Julie has also served as secretary for the Covillaud Parent Teacher Student Organization, president for the McKenney PTA, and as a historian for Kynoch PTA in addition to being highly involved with school sports. In 2001, the Coulsons became licensed foster parents and have now fostered over 50 children. They adopted three and became the guardians of six others. Julie also mentors foster youth that have aged out of the system and is active in the ACE's Exchange Program with whom the couple has hosted kids from Japan, Germany, China, Thailand, Qatar, Tunisia, and Kazakhstan. Thank you, Julie for making a difference in the lives of others!
